

Why can't I have the right to stop as much of my incoming phone calls as I desire? If I want to do business with a company, I can contact them, I don't feel it is right they can interrupt my day by calling me.